The World Is Mine

Today, upon a bus,
I saw a lovely girl with golden hair.
I envied her, she seemed so gay,
And wished I were as fair.
When suddenly she rose to leave,
I saw her hobble down the aisle;
She had one leg, and wore a crutch,
And as she passed ~ a smile.
O God, forgive me when I whine.
I have two legs. The world is mine.

And then I stopped to buy some sweets.
The lad who sold them had such charm;
I talked with him ~ he seemed so glad
If I were late 'twould do no harm.
And as I left he said to me:
"I thank you. You have been so kind.
It's nice to talk with folks like you.
You see," he said, "I'm blind."
O God, forgive me when I whine.
I have two eyes. The world is mine.

Later, walking down the street,
I saw a child with eyes of blue.
He stood and watched the others play;
And he knew not what to do.
I stopped a moment, then I said:
"Why don't you join the others, dear?"
He looked ahead without a word,
And then I knew ~ he could not hear.
O God, forgive me when I whine.
I have two ears. The world is mine.

With legs to take me where I'd go
With eyes to see the sunset's glow
With ears to hear what I would know
O God, forgive me when I whine.
I'm blessed indeed. The world is mine.
