The Haven of Rest

Henry Lake Gilmour went to sea at the age of 16 to learn navigation. When the ship reached Philadelphia, he decided to seek his fortune in America. He became a house painter and served during the Civil War with the 1st New Jersey Cavalry. During a battle, he was captured, and spent months in a Confederate prison. After the war, Gilmour trained as a dentist, an occupation he had for many years. In 1869 he moved to Wenonah, New Jersey, where a Methodist church was organized with a first meeting in his home. He served the church for years as a Sunday School superintendent and choir director. However, Gilmour is best remembered as a gospel musician. He was in great demand as a song leader in the camp meetings of the day. For four decades, he directed the choir at the Pitman Grove Camp Meeting, and worked at camp meetings and revivals in Maryland, and in Pennsylvania. In addition, he was a frequent visitor to the Ocean Grove Camp in New Jersey, and through these activities gained personal acquaintance with many writers and composers of gospel hymns. Gilmour himself wrote many gospel songs and published more than 16 song compilations. The most familiar song of Henry Gilmour's today is The Haven of Rest. In it he pictures the sinner seeking a safe harbor, and he presents the Lord Jesus Himself as that harbor. "The Haven of Rest" was likely produced in 1889. The tune (Haven of Rest) was composed by George D. Moore. Though it cannot be verified, since Henry had spent weeks on the open sea, and the campground was on the ocean, the nautical metaphor makes sense. In the first verse of this hymn Gilmour pictures the soul as being in exile on life's sea. Many people we know are in that condition today, burdened and distressed with the load of sin, needing the safe haven. And so were we until we yielded to Jesus and entered the haven. In the second verse the soul is pictured as yielding to the Lord. The third verse shows the yielded soul giving praise to the Lord, as we who are saved should be doing today. In the fourth verse the soul is at rest and secure with the Lord while in the fifth we see the resting soul calling to others. If your soul has never entered the haven of rest, now is the time to do so. The Savior patiently waits and will save by His power divine. "Which hope we have as an anchor for the soul, both sure and steadfast." Hebrews 6:19. "I've anchored my soul in the "Haven of Rest," I'll sail the wide seas no more; The tempest may sweep over wild, stormy, deep. In Jesus I'm safe evermore."
